Fundraising Highlight - Atlanta, Georgia

Trying to raise money without simply asking members to contribute takes creativity. Atlanta has tackled fundraising recently through a bartering system. Members are offered services and goods to each other with the agreement that a percentage of the fees or cost will be contributed to Subud. Professional Services (counseling, financial, etc), Acupressure/bodywork, Artwork, and Personalized relaxation CD's are among talents and products being shared. The percentage to be donated is up to the provider of the service.
